WAU Hosts Family Fun Festival April 13

Festival Features Music, Food and Family Entertainment

A Family Fun Festival will be held on Sunday, April 13, noon to 5 p.m., on the campus of Washington Adventist University (WAU) in Takoma Park. The free event will feature music, food and family entertainment. Previously known as the WAU Taste of Takoma, the event has been an annual tradition on campus for more than a decade during the university's alumni weekend – which is April 10-13 this year.

"This festival offers families a variety of wholesome entertainment, and it's a nice way to spend time together on a Sunday afternoon." said Professor Kimberly Pichot, chair of the WAU Business Department and chair of this year's festival. "I encourage individuals and families to join in the fun."

The festival this year will be staged with support from the City of Takoma Park and local sponsors such as Washington Adventist Hospital and WGTS 91.9 FM radio. Featured will be a performance by WAU's award-winning Acro-Airs sports-acrobatics exhibition team; a showcase of WGTS music artists; a concert by Josh Wilson; health screenings; food from local restaurants and caterers; tents filled with interesting crafts; and entertainment for children, big and small. A food drive for the Capital Area Food Bank will also be featured, and families are encouraged to bring non-perishable food items to donate.

The festival will be held rain or shine. The WAU campus is located at 7600 Flower Avenue, Takoma Park, Md. 20912, near Washington Adventist Hospital and accessible by public transportation.
