

Capital Summer Program, July 21-August 8, 2014

Washington Adventist University is recruiting motivated high school juniors, seniors and graduates-- including home schooled students-- for its annual three-week intensive Capital Summer Program. This is a challenging academic curriculum taught by some of our leading faculty. Participants can select one of the four classes offered and earn three college credits while immersing themselves in the cultural richness of the Washington metro area.

Tuition and room are free for new freshmen or transfer students who will be attending WAU in fall 2014. Others will benefit from very attractive tuition rates. Note that room and meal charges (below*) apply only to those who will be living in the residence halls.

Courses: (Choose one)

- HIST 276 U.S. History II
- PSYC 105 General Psychology
- RELB 160 Jesus and the Gospels
- SOCI 105 General Sociology

Who Can Attend

- Juniors and seniors in high school during fall 2014 with a GPA of 2.75 or higher; high school graduates who qualify for regular admission to WAU.
- Current college/university students including transfers

Program Cost (for 3 credits)
