Evening classes will have their final examinations during test week at the time they meet during the regular session except Thursday classes which will have the final the Thursday BEFORE Exam Week.

Examinations in classes not provided for specifically in the schedule above will be given during test week during the period most closely matching the class meeting time. This will be determined and announced by the Instructor.

Instructors are not authorized to change the scheduled time of an examination without prior approval of the Dean of your school.

Exceptions to the examination schedule are granted only by the Dean of your school. Acceptable reasons are:

1. Death in the immediate family.
2. Documented medical emergency demanding immediate attention.
3. An examination schedule with three or more examinations in one day.

All travel, weddings, work, medical appointments, and other arrangements should be made early to avoid conflict with the examination schedule. If permission is granted for a special examination, the student will be expected to pay a fee to cover the cost of preparing and proctoring the examination. The fee may vary from $25 to $50 for each examination according to the course requirements and will be payable in cash.
