

WASHINGTON
ADVENTIST UNIVERSITY

AARON M. WILSON, LIBRARY TECHNICIAN II

Thurgood Marshall Library
Bowie State University
Jericho Park Road
Bowie MD 20715
(301) 860-3863

Aaron Wilson earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in History and American Studies in 2012 from Washington Adventist University. While an undergraduate, he was a member of the WAU Choral program, President of the Black Student Union, and both Executive Vice-President and Parliamentarian of the Student Association. He became a member of the Washington Adventist University Board of Trustees April, 2014.

In May 2011, Aaron was elected as a Council Member I the Town of Fairmount Heights, Maryland. During this time, he oversaw historical preservation within the town. Following his graduation from WAU, he began his career with Library Systems and Services, LLC. and the Library of Congress. He currently works as a Library Technician for the Thurgood Marshall Library at Bowie State University and serves as President of the Washington Adventist University Alumni Association.