

Dialogue on Ferguson, MO

Dial-in at 1-800-230-1085 on Sept. 3

This city of just over 21,000 residents in eastern Missouri has exploded to the forefront of global attention regarding issues of race, law enforcement, and socio-economic status.

Beyond the headlines, and the protests, there is still a community called Ferguson.

What happens to this neighborhood when all the cameras leave? How does Ferguson rebuild? Will resentment fester or will understanding prevail? How do we give Ferguson and ultimately ourselves the best chance forward? What does it take for a community to turn away from the anger?

Join us for a Dialogue on Ferguson, MO September 3, 4-5:00pm central time (5-6:00pm eastern).
Dial 1-800-230-1085 to be part of the discussion.

Participants

Charles Henson
Former City Council Member, Ferguson, MO
Minority Business Development Agency

Dr. Kenneth Warren
Professor of Political Science
Saint Louis University

Colin Wellenkamp
Adj. Prof. of Public Policy
Washington Adventist Univ.

Ken Franklin
Morehouse College Alumni Assoc.
Chair of Community Engagement

Richard Wolfe
Adj. Professor of Public Policy
Washington Adventist University

Keith Savage
Savage Solutions Group
Multicultural Strategy & Development

Rev. Robert "Rosy" Rosebrough
Pastor, Blessed Teresa of Calcutta Catholic Church
Ferguson, MO

Made Possible through a co-venture between Saint Louis University Dept. of Political Science and Washington Adventist University.

SAINT LOUIS UNIVERSITY

FOUNDED 1894
FERGUSON
MISSOURI

JOHN

His

MAKING HISTORY ALL OVER AGAIN