

WASHINGTON
ADVENTIST UNIVERSITY

JOSÉ H. CORTÉS, PH.D

Born in Cuba, Pastor Jose H. Cortes completed his bachelor's degree in Theology from Antilles College there. He holds a Masters degree in Pastoral Ministries from Andrews University, and another Masters in Family Counseling and a Doctorate in Psychology from University of Carolina.

He has served the church and God as a pastor, evangelist, teacher, departmental director, Executive Secretary and recently as President of the New Jersey Conference. His love for evangelism maintains him serving as Evangelism Director for the New Jersey Conference. He has ministered in the Inter-American Division, then in the Euro- African Division and now the North American Division. He has preached and conducted evangelistic campaigns in at least 27 countries, from the American Continents, to the Caribbean, to Europe and Australia.

His colleagues refer to him as "Mr. Evangelism." A prolific author, he has written several books, pamphlets and articles of great impact. He and his wife Celia have two sons; Jose H. Jr. (a pastor and current Youth Director for the Greater New York Conference) and Josue, and four grandchildren.