	TITLE: TEMPORARY FOOD EVENT'S POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Properly registered students may conduct events where food is catered, sold or distributed as a part of their fundraising efforts. Faculty and staff may conduct catered events. The University has an exclusive agreement with Aladdin Food Management Services to manage the university food service program. It is a violation of the agreement to allow any other outside vendors to sell food products or provide samples to our campus community. Questions concerning the use of food vendors should be directed to Student Life Office.

All outside caterers or contractors providing food at the Washington Adventist University (WAU) must be in possession of a valid Temporary Food Services License (Montgomery County Department of Health and Human Services).

All outside caterers or contractors providing food at the Washington Adventist University must possess a Certified Food Service Manager's Certification.

Faculty, staff, or students serving food at an event and/or intending to use a caterer/outside contractor to cater an event on campus, must follow all rules and regulations mandated by the Department of Public Safety (DPS) Safety Division. The individual who obtains the Temporary Food Dealer's Permit is responsible for ensuring all participants of the event adhere to all policies and procedures.

Faculty, staff, or students shall submit a request for a Temporary Food Event Permit at least 15 working days prior to the proposed event.

Prior to obtaining a Temporary Food Event Permit, a site reservation must be confirmed with WAU Facility Services.

Temporary Food Events Permits expire upon completion of the event except when a variance is granted. If the event is forced to be postponed, please contact the DPS for a permit extension before the original permit is to expire. Otherwise a new permit will need to be filed.

Faculty, staff, or students providing temporary food service establishments on campus, shall comply with the requirements of the Montgomery County Department of Health and Human Services; Rules on Food Service Sanitation and Maryland State laws. Failure to comply with these rules and regulations will result in the revocation of the Temporary Food Event's Permit, and appropriate University disciplinary action.

There are some restricted operations where the University may impose additional requirements to protect against health hazards.

The University may prohibit the sale of some or all potentially hazardous foods. Hot ready to eat food items (e.g. pizza, doughnuts, etc.) must be sold within four hours of original receipt or discarded.

Temporary food establishments planning to use barbecue pits, reheating, or hot holding devices that require an open flame, are prohibited no exception.

Potentially hazardous foods are foods that if handled or prepared improperly can cause a food borne illness. “Low Risk” foods are shelf stable; examples of approved foods are:

- Candy

The sale of any “High Risk” food item, whether hot or cold, purchased or donated, will be allowed by University policy only for those whom first obtain a Food Handlers Certificate through the Montgomery County or State of Maryland, a SERVSAFE Food Handler’s Certificate (<https://www.servsafe.com/home>) or an approved source. Fees are associated with obtaining these certificates. Once the certificate is obtained the application for the WAU Temporary Food Event’s Permit may be submitted to the DPS. Exceptions for allowing a High Risk food sale event may be approved with prior authorization from the DPS Safety Officer. The adherence to the WAU policies and procedures listed in this document still applies.
