

2022-2023 UNUSUAL ENROLLMENT HISTORY FORM

Your 2022-23 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) has been flagged for “Unusual Enrollment History Review” by the U.S. Department of Education because you received Federal Pell Grant and/or Direct Loan funds at multiple education institutions during the review periods of 2018-19, 2019-20, 2020-21, and/or 2021-22. This flag requires WAU to review your enrollment history and determine whether or not you are enrolling only long enough to receive cash refunds of Federal Student Financial Aid. In the process of reviewing your enrollment history, WAU will check the National Student Loan System (NSLDS) to obtain a complete history including the name of the institutions you have attended and the dates of attendance. If you have questions, contact us promptly so your financial aid will not be delayed.

 If you answered “No” to the Credits Earned question for ANY of the schools you listed above, you must provide an explanation (on the second page) of the special circumstance(s) that caused your failure to earn academic credit/hour and provide documentation to support your explanation. WAU Financial Aid office will review your academic transcripts, loan/grant history, your explanation, and your documentation to determine your financial aid eligibility.*

Your request for financial assistance will not be considered until you have submitted this completed form with all required documentation to the WAU Financial Aid Office. Additionally, your documentation and academic transcripts will be reviewed by the Counseling Staff and/or Financial Aid Director. You must be approved in order to receive federal financial aid for the 2022-2023 academic year. The decision of this information is final and cannot be appealed to the U.S. Department of Education.
